Achievement awards given to nation's great

OWENSBORO, Ky. — Celebrated actress Helen Hayes, hockey great Gordie Howe and civil rights activist Jesse Jackson have been added to the list of celebrities who will attend the 1978 Academy of Achievement Golden Plate Awards Dinner here June 24 at the Executive Inn Rivermont, the academy has announced.

In addition, businessman Stephen Bechtel, shipping magnate C.Y. Tung and Stewardess Dorothy Kelly, who risked her life to save others in the Canary Islands crash of two 747 jets, will be in attendance.

Miss Hayes, the star of many stage and film productions for over half a century, and Bechtel, senior director of the giant Bechtel group of industries, are past honorees who will be presenting awards at the Golden Plate dinner.

The four others will be receiving awards from the academy.

Jackson, a minister who has been predominant in the campaign for civil rights for blacks, is founder and national president of Operation PUSH, which attempts to help inner-city black youths.

Howe, at 50, continues to play hockey for the New England Whalers. A professional for 32 years, Howe played most of his career for the Detroit Red Wings and is the holder of most of the existing records in the sport.

Tung is chairman of the Island Navigation Corp. of Hong Kong and is reported to be one of the four largest independent ship-owners in the world.

Miss Kelly, of Fitzwilliam, N.H., was the recipient of the U.S. Department of Transportation's highest award for bravery for risking her life in the Canary Islands crash in which 581 persons died. Despite head injuries and a broken arm, she repeatedly returned to the burning wreckage to assist other injured.

Those four will join a stellar list of honorees, previously announced, which includes Attorney General Griffin Bell, CIA Director Stansfield Turner, FBI Director William Webster, Dallas Cowboy Coach Tom Landry, comedienne Carol Burnett, Gen. Omar Bradley and many others.
